

sponsored by:

Do you know who your kids are talking to online?
Are you concerned about your child's safety on the internet?

The Dark Side of Digital Technology: The Internet, Cell Phones, and Social Media

Presented by:
Wisconsin Department of Justice Special Agent Eric Szatkowski

While the internet offers a world of educational and entertainment options for young people, it also has a dark and dangerous side we must be aware of. This presentation on the digital exploitation of children includes real-life examples and practical advice for anyone interested in the safety and well-being of our children online or using their cell phones. An eye-opening LIVE DEMONSTRATION of chat rooms is included.

Please note: Due to the nature of this subject, this presentation is appropriate for adults only.

Monday, March 15, 2010

6:30—8:30 pm

Horizon School Library

Pewaukee

A presentation
so important
you can't afford to miss it!

Topics Include:

- Common Techniques used by Predators
- The Most Vulnerable Type of Kids
- Cyber Bullying and Cell Phone Exploitation
- The Importance of Filters and Monitoring Software
- The Risks of Online Journals (Facebook, Twitter, Fotolog, etc.)

About the Speaker:

Eric Szatkowski has been a Special Agent with the Wisconsin Department of Justice / Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) since 1991. He is currently assigned to the state's Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force in Milwaukee.

Since 1999, Eric has become one of the nation's leading undercover officers in apprehending predators of children who use the Internet to seduce or exploit children.

Eric's dynamic presentations on internet crimes against children have been seen by over 100,000 people in Wisconsin and around the U.S.

RSVP appreciated: cheri@pewaukepto.com OR 262-695-1822